

I do not like receiving telemarketer calls at home and believe that a "no call list" should be just that; a no call list. Banks should not be allowed to infringe on this "no call list".